SUBJECT: UGA housing update

Dear Bulldogs,

Congratulations again on joining the Bulldog family! We expect to begin offering opportunities to choose on-campus spaces the week of May 24 (in the order in which you completed the housing registration and paid the $35 fee), so continue to check your UGA email for updates.

In the meantime, a few reminders and updates:

- If you have preferred roommates, make sure you create and add them to a roommate group in The Dawg House before your online appointment time to choose a space. This will allow members of the group to assign each other to a space
- Research halls and rates at housing.uga.edu/explore-options. Make sure to have a backup plan (or two!) in case your first choice has been taken. Since the process is student-driven, we can't predict which halls will be available when it's your turn to choose
- Although we cannot offer in-person tours of residence halls this summer during orientation sessions, check out University Housing's YouTube channel for a glimpse of life on campus, as well as 360-degree immersive video tours and day-in-the-life content
- Make a plan to visit the University Housing table during in-person orientation sessions and/or attend a weekly webinar Tuesdays at 7 p.m. June 8 through August 10
- If you require any type of housing accommodation due to a disability, please contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) as soon as possible. Once the DRC determines an accommodation request is appropriate, they will notify University Housing. Depending on documentation required by the DRC, this process may take some time; therefore, the sooner accommodation requests are submitted, the more options may be available to you

Please reach out if you have any questions or concerns; we are looking forward to seeing you on campus!
