Culture of Inclusion

University Housing believes an inclusive community is essential to the personal growth of all community members. We strive to create an environment where we recognize, welcome and celebrate all staff, students and stakeholders’ identities. Through our mission, values and principles, we commit to building a department where all can feel a sense of belonging. Our commitment to inclusion for everyone is imperative. Personal awareness of social identities (e.g., gender, race, sexual orientation, ability, socioeconomic status) and an understanding of social structures that affect everyday life are critical. It is in the best interest of staff to enhance their knowledge and personal awareness concerning inclusion. This will lead to personal growth and organizational effectiveness.

To promote a culture of inclusion University Housing will:

- Ensure practical and work-based learning opportunities are available to staff to educate them about inclusion in the workplace. Formal and informal training options provided by the department, division, and/or institution will accomplish this.
- Train supervisors and managers to be accountable for treating all staff fairly in light of the social identities present in our workplace and in our residence halls.
- Ensure all employees are trained and aware of the University’s Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment (NDAH) policy.
- Urge staff to explore their own personal attitudes, biases and beliefs.
- Encourage staff to express beliefs and opinions in the workspace while complying with the NDAH policy.
- Provide time and space for staff to discuss world events and issues affecting staff and students; be proactive in working to resolve issues before they become problems in the workplace.
- Create tangible outcomes representative of University Housing’s commitment to an inclusive community.
